

EXTRA.

The British Columbia Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VICTORIA, JULY 19TH, 1892.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVINCIAL HEALTH REGULATIONS, 1892.

[L.S.] HUGH NELSON.

THEODORE DAVIE, } WHEREAS by order in Council Attorney-General. } dated the 11th day of July, A.D. 1892, His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was pleased by virtue of and acting under the "Health Act," to issue certain Regulations in the matter of small-pox, which Regulations are cited as the "Provincial Health Regulations, 1892."

And whereas it is advisable to amend and supplement the said Regulations in particulars as hereinafter appears:

Therefore His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. So much of the "Provincial Health Regulations, 1892," as authorizes and requires the Corporation of the City of Victoria to appoint a Municipal Health Officer, and any municipal by-law, regulation, or resolution authorizing, or purporting to authorize, the appointment of a Health Officer for the said city is hereby discharged, and any existing appointment heretofore made of a Health Officer by the said Corporation is hereby vacated and annulled.

2. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Health Officer to appoint a duly qualified medical practitioner to perform within the limits of the Municipality of the City of Victoria the duties allotted by said Regulations to the Municipal Health Officer for the Corporation, and to cancel and revoke such appointment at pleasure, and from time to time to make new appointments to fill the vacancy caused by any such cancellation or revocation, and such officer shall be designated the "Victoria Local Health Officer."

3. The Provincial Health Officer may, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, fix the salary or remuneration to be received by the "Victoria Local Health Officer."

4. The Provincial Health Officer may, and he is hereby authorized in and for the City of Victoria to annul or supersede the appointment of any person whose duties are to carry out health regulations, and may and is hereby authorized to appoint some suitable person to fill any vacancy thereby created, and to cancel and revoke any such appointments at pleasure, and from time to time to make new appointments to fill any vacancies which may happen. He may also make any appointments which under the Regulations ought to be made by the Municipal Council, or some officer thereof, and has not been made, and may, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, fix the salary or remuneration attached to any such office. Any appointment to office by the Provincial Health Officer shall be subject to the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

5. Every person who was appointed as watchman prior to the issue of the "Provincial Health Regulations, 1892," shall be subject to the said Regulations and shall perform the duties required of him in compliance with such regulations, and be subject to all penalties thereby imposed for neglect or breach of duty or otherwise.

6. It shall be the duty of every Municipal or Local Health Officer, Medical Inspector, or other officer appointed for or engaged in the performance of duties in connection with the preservation of the public health, in what locality soever, and whether appointed by Provincial or municipal authority, or by the authority of some local board, or by whomsoever else, to afford every information upon health matters in his possession, or which he may acquire, which may be asked or required of him by the Provincial Health Officer, and whether so asked by letter, telegram, or otherwise howsoever, and all reasonable dispatch shall be used in the furnishing of such information; and any officer or other person neglecting to or unreasonably delaying in the affording of the information demanded, to the full extent of his knowledge, shall be liable, upon summary conviction, to the penalties imposed by section 11 of the "Provincial Health Regulations, 1892."

7. It shall be lawful for the Provincial Health Officer, in his discretion, at any time during the continuance in force of the said regulations, to appropriate, use and cause to be used by any other person or persons under his authority and direction, any building or real property owned or leased by the Corporation of the City of Victoria, as a place for the custody and detention until discharged of any person or persons known, suspected, or reported to have been in any way exposed to variolic contagion or infection.

8. On the receipt by the Mayor or the City Clerk of the said city of a written notice, under the hand of the Provincial Health Officer, of his intention to appropriate any building or real property as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said Corporation, and of all persons acting for or under the authority of the said Corporation, to forthwith surrender up to the Provincial Health Officer, and all persons acting under his authority and direction, the building or other real property named in the said notice, and admit him and them into full and quiet possession of the same.

9. All the powers and authority that are vested in a Local Board of Health under and by virtue of sections 32 to 36, both inclusive, of the said Regulations are hereby declared to be vested in and exercis-able by the Provincial Health Officer within the said City of Victoria.

10. These Regulations may be cited as the "Supplementary Provincial Health Regulations, 1892."

Dated at Victoria, 18th July, 1892.

By Command.

A. CAMPBELL REDDIE,
Deputy Provincial Secretary.

